MAKE PLEA FOR A NEW NOBLE TRIAL

Attorneys For Man Convicted of the Murder of Albert Sprague, File
Voluminous Motion.

ASSERT MRS. SPRAGUE GUILTY

Declare New Evidence Has Been Procured Which Will Prove Sprague
Was Killed by Wife.

The motion for a new trial in the case of the State against Ben Noble, the Decatur county farm hand, who was convicted for the murder of his employer, Albert Sprague, during the last week of the last term of court, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State prison, which was filed in the clerk's office yesterday evening just before closing time, is a very voluminous affair and covers about thirty-five typewritten pages. The motion is mainly in effect that much new evidence will be introduced bearing on the case and it is on that theory that the counsel for Noble asks for a new trial. If the trial is granted, it promises to be very sensational as a great amount of new evidence will be introduced which may throw a different light on the murder. The defense alleges that evidence will be brought out to show that Mrs. Gertrude Sprague, the widow of the murdered farmer, killed her husband, and not Ben Noble. The counsel stated in the motion that it is their honest belief that Mrs. Sprague did the killing.

The first paragraph of the motion sets out that the verdict returned on the night of March 13, was contrary to law. The second is to the effect that the verdict is not sustained by sufficient evidence. The next forty-nine paragraphs take up each one of the court's instructions in the last trial and point out where they were not correct. The next ten paragraphs are devoted to the ten instructions which the defense asked from the court and did not get in the last trial.

In the motion it is pointed out that the court made an error in admitting the check, which the State alleged was forged by Ben Noble, over the objections of the defense. It is stated that the defense began the trial on the theory that Gertrude Sprague, widow of the murdered man, was innocent of the crime. During the course of the trial here the defendant and his counsel were led to believe that she was guilty and since the trial more evidence has been found to support the belief of Noble and his counsel, all of which is more fully given in affidavits which are included in full in the motion.

It is declared that if granted a new trial, the defense will prove all of the facts introduced in the affidavits and also will be able to prove additional facts by additional testimony besides that introduced in the last trial and in affidavits to the effect that Gertrude Sprague was and is guilty of the murder of her husband for which offense the defendant was charged and convicted. Ben Noble made affidavit to all of the facts as set forth by his attorneys.

The first affidavit is that of Goldia Carr, who is now a resident of Rush county, but who lived on a farm adjoining Sprague's until September 1909, when he moved to this county. He went to Decatur county in the fall of 1909 to gather corn and stayed at the Sprague home. He also declares in the affidavit that he went to the Sprague home on the day of the sale, after the murder, and talked with Mrs. Sprague, who said that she would show him the scenes of the murder and tell him about it. He says that he and George Davis were taken into the room where Sprague's body was found and that Mrs. Sprague said she was lying asleep beside her husband when she heard the report. In the affidavit Carr says that Mrs. Sprague declared that she did not feel for the wounds, but got up and lit the light; also that she knew he was shot through the brain and died instantly. Carr avers that she told him she walked into the kitchen and found the gun barrel warm and then wondered if he thought "they" would think she watched too closely. In the affidavit it is declared that Mrs. Sprague asked Carr to visit Noble while in Indianapolis and see if he said anything about her and if he did to write it down and mail it to her.

Dr. J. M. Wood, a Decatur county physician, and Dr. E. T. Riley, a Greensburg physician, in affidavits, swear that they know of the circumstances surrounding the Sprague murder and are unanimous in the opinion that the combined disturbance caused by the discharge and a report of a shot gun would awaken any person in a normal condition. It will be remembered that evidence in the trial was to the effect that the Sprague children who slept in the same room were not awakened.

James I. Robbins, 24 years old, who has known the Sprague family for eight years, swears in an affidavit that Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, while they lived on the Ed Marr farm in Bartholomew county, often had trouble. He cites one incident when Mrs. Sprague in an angry tone commanded her husband to come into the house and at another time said to him, "Albert, why in the h--- don't you come in here."

Lewis A. Harding, a law partner of John E. Osborne of Greensburg, one of the attorneys in the case, swears to a long affidavit which is a part of the motion. His affidavit is in substance: He went to Clifford, Bartholomew county, March 27, and remained for three days to gather evidence. In that community, which is the Spragues' former home, he found much prejudice and sentiment against Noble, which was especially strong among friends and relatives of Sprague. Harding found it the same way in Decatur county. He found much evidence to cause belief that Gertrude Sprague killed her husband and found that people were restrained and restrained themselves on account of the feeling against Noble. Dewitt Hager told him that Mrs. Sprague imposed on her husband and ordered him around imperiously. George Lehman, a relative of Sprague, by marriage, told him that Sprague had improper relations with other women. Harding learned this from various sources. He also heard the common belief that Sprague would have got on better if he had not had such a woman. He was told that Mrs. Sprague was jealous of a woman on the Ed Marr farm. Harding is convinced that people he talked with knew and do know that Sprague had had trouble with various women in the neighborhood; that Mrs. Sprague is a woman of high temper; often quarreled about the manner in which the household was run and was jealous of other women in the neighborhood on account of her husband's relations to them. He believes there is additional evidence which can not be obtained only by compulsory methods of court on account of the confidential relations of the neighborhood. He interviewed the oldest Sprague girl who said that she was not awakened by the report of the gun on the night of the murder, but by her mother. He talked to Merritt Webb who said improper relations existed between Sprague and other women in the neighborhood. Harding believes that an affidavit can not be obtained from Webb without compulsion of the court on account of his hostility to Noble.

Ben Noble makes an affidavit in which he reviews the testimony introduced in the case and declares that he believes, on account of the additional evidence, that Mrs. (Continued on Page Four.)

FOUND HOME IN FINE CONDITION

Commissioners From This and Henry County Held Inspection in Spiceland Yesterday.

THE BOARD WELL SATISFIED

Rumors That Children Were Not Well Cared For Are All Without Foundation.

The commissioners from this and Henry county held a joint session yesterday in Spiceland. The meeting was for the purpose of inspecting the orphans' home, concerning which many rumors have gone forth about the children not being well cared for and mis-management.

The meeting was called by the Henry county commissioners who desired to show the board from this county and to satisfy themselves that the home was being conducted in a proper manner. The home was found to be in an excellent condition and the commissioners from both counties were well pleased.

The matron of the home knew nothing of their coming and was in New Castle on business. The commissioners arrived there just as the children were sitting down to dinner and according to T. J. Humes, chairman of the board from this county, they were well fed and had plenty of provisions, despite the fact that rumors have been to the contrary.

All of the buildings were found to be in first class condition and everything was nice and clean, showing that care had been exercised by the management. The children were all in good health and seemed pleased with their surroundings. There are now thirty-four children there and nineteen are from this county. This county will not take these from the home as has been reported and the commissioners never have thought of such a thing.

The cause of the trouble is said to have started because of spite work and jealousy. It seems as though several persons in Spiceland were after the position and the appointment of the present matron caused the various "knocks" to be registered.

BUYS SPRING BONNET HERE

Connersville Woman Journeys to Rushville to Get New Hat.

When Connersville women come to Rushville to buy their spring bonnets, local milliners should feel elated. That was the case yesterday, when a Connersville woman journeyed all the way to this city over the I. & C. traction line to buy her spring headgear. She told several local women that she thought the line of spring millinery in this city is much superior to that shown in Connersville and it was for that reason that she made the special trip here.

WANTS DAMAGES.

New Castle Courier: Mary J. Knox of Greenfield is plaintiff in an action against Charles A. Smith, a liveryman at Knightstown. The plaintiff hired a horse and buggy of the defendant and the horse ran away. She was severely injured in the accident and alleges that Smith knew the animal was vicious, but did not tell her. Damages in the sum of $500 are demanded.

HOW TO DISPOSE OF CROW HEADS

That is Question Which is Worrying
Officials in County Clerk's Office at Present.

IS RESULT OF RECENT LAW

Young Farmers to Make Spending Money by Shooting Them—
Birch Morford Calls.

What is to be done with the crows' scalps is worrying the heads of Verne Norris, county clerk and Birney Spadling, deputy clerk. Already several farmers have called to know whether or not they are paying ten cents a "head" for crows dead or alive. The county officials have not yet received any instructions on the new law so that they have to turn all of the inquirers away without their question being answered.

It is not known whether or not the new law provides for an appropriation for some receptacle to hold the dead crows, but the officials are already figuring on space for them. Of course, they can not afford to pay out their good money and have nothing to show for it. It is supposed that they will be compelled to save the dead fowls which will of course cause a terrible stink around the clerk's office which eventually may keep some of the taxpayers out.

Birch Morford, living northeast of the city, called at the clerk's office about noon and asked if they were paying ten cents a head for crows. He said that he had killed at least twenty-five in the last week and he thought that he might as well bring them in and get the revenue. He said that all of the boys in his neighborhood are figuring on making spending money by shooting crows on rainy days when they can not work. All they need to do is to pull their heads off and bring them in.

The law was passed by the recent legislature to give an impetus to the war on crows. They are considered very dangerous fowls since they destroy grain and commit other depredations on the farm and it is for that reason that a ten cent premium was put on their heads.

BYRON PIATT WILL ADDRESS MEETING

Third Men's Big Meeting Will be Held Sunday Afternoon in United Presbyterian Church.

SPOKE HERE AT CHAUTAUQUA

The third of a series of Men's Big Meetings will be held Sunday afternoon in the United Presbyterian church when Byron Piatt of Indianapolis will deliver an address. Mr. Piatt is considered an excellent speaker and is under the direction of the Central Lyceum Bureau of Indianapolis. He spends the summer each year in lecturing. Mr. Piatt will undoubtedly attract a large crowd at this meeting as the people of this city know his ability as an orator. It will be remembered that he spoke at the third annual Chautauqua here under the direction of W. O. Headlee, and pleased the audience with his flashes of wit and masterly argument. A musical program will be given before Mr. Piatt speaks.

SHERBURNE QUILTS POST OFFICE JOB

Knightstown is Full of Candidates For Position—Crumpacker Will Name His Successor.

WAS APPOINTED BY WATSON

E. M. Sherburne, postmaster at Knightstown, has tendered his resignation to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed, says the New Castle Courier. He will devote his time to business affairs, which will require his removal from Knightstown to Indianapolis. Mr. Sherburne was appointed two years ago on the recommendation of former Congressman James E. Watson. He succeeded Charles R. Swaim, a Knightstown attorney.

As a result of the resignation of Mr. Sherburne that neck-o'-woods is full of candidates for the office and a brisk fight for the plum is anticipated. Among the candidates for the office are James Wilson, former trustee of Wayne township; C. R. Swaim, former postmaster; Peter Vanderbark, John E. Keys and E. E. Diehl, all Republican wheelhorses. All are pulling every wire to land the appointment.

The recommendation of the successor to Mr. Sherburne will fall to the lot of Congressman Crumpacker, from the Tenth district, the only Republican from Indiana in the national legislative body. Mr. Crumpacker, it is understood, has communicated with former Congressman Barnard in regard to the appointment and will probably be guided in his recommendation by the counsel of the New Castle man.

COMELY WIDOW WANTS TO SELL

Drusie Megee, Rushville Woman, Would Break Into Field of Literature.

TO DISMISS $10,000 LAW SUIT

Wishes to Dispose of Story of Her Trials to World "at Current Space Rate."

Drusilla Megee, the comely widow of this city, who has broken into print in New York since she arrived there from this city over a year ago, has now assumed the role of an author, a new one for her. She first filed suit for $10,000 against a wealthy New York contractor on breach of promise proceedings, which occasioned her first publicity. Now she does not desire to push the suit against her husband-to-be-perhaps—not but she would like to increase her finances as the result of the suit. In other words she would like to sell the story of her troubles and tribulations. The New York World has to say of her recent efforts in the field of literature:

Mrs. Drusie Megee, a thrifty Hoosier, resolved to turn her disappointment in regard to her $10,000 breach of promise case against Edwin Coolbaugh to some account. So yesterday she offered The World the story of the suit's dismissal, "to be paid for at the current space rates." Mrs. Megee said she felt she was wronging Mr. Coolbaugh by pressing it, and therefore had determined to drop it.

Mrs. Megee, in the flush of authorship, walked to The World office from her home at Twenty-fifth street and Seventh avenue, as easily as she was accustomed to make the trip from her home in Rushville, Ind., to the post-office. "I didn't want to bother about taking the car," she told the reporter, "it didn't seem much of a walk."

She was just as energetic in love affairs as she is in literary matters. She was divorced in Rushville last year and forthwith inserted an advertisement in a country sheet that she was anxious to correspond with a wealthy and refined gentleman, object matrimony. Edwin Coolbaugh, an electrical contractor of New York, responded, but as the court had forbidden Mrs. Megee to marry within two years, they decided to set up housekeeping and attend to the preliminaries later. After ten months of life together, Coolbaugh offered Mrs. Megee $200 and suggested she go to Indiana for a visit, the longer the better. This Mrs. Megee refused to do and began suit for breach of promise.

Mrs. Megee said yesterday she got tired of the slow process of the law and decided to drop the suit. "I'll be satisfied if I can sell the story about it," she said.

Mattoon, Ill.—"Will you allow me for the benefit of others who may be in the same condition as I was to make a statement in this paper.

"I was in very poor health for years, was weak, ailing and all run-down, and had lost in weight until I only weighed ninety pounds. I had been under a physician's care without any benefit, for so long I was discouraged.

"About a year ago I decided to try a tonic called Vinol, concerning which I had heard many favorable reports. I commenced to gain and increased in weight until I now weigh 127 pounds, am in perfect health—and never felt better in my life.

"Then my daughter, who lived in Martinsville, Ind., was an invalid, and no encouragement was held out for her recovery. After my experience with Vinol, we went to Martinsville and brought her to Mattoon, as she was helpless. When we got her here I put her on Vinol with the same good results from its use which I had—she gained in weight, and today she is well and strong and feels better than she ever did in her life." Mrs. O. M. Watrous. (We guarantee this letter is genuine.)

We have for years recommended Vinol as a grand tonic and body-builder, and every year we gain more and more faith in its wonderful virtues. It is certainly the best and simplest tonic restorative we know of. F. B. Johnson & Company, druggists.

Will Celebrate Achievement By Big Banquet Tonight.

MANY NOTABLES TO SPEAK

It is Expected a Thousand Banqueters Will Greet the Leaders of the Party When the Hour For Speechmaking Comes at Indianapolis Tonight—Mr. Bryan Detained in the East by the Funeral of Tom Johnson.

Indianapolis, April 13.—For the national "Democratic achievement" banquet this evening under the auspices of the National Democratic League of Clubs, Democrats from various parts of the state have gathered in Indianapolis. Prominent Democrats from various parts of the United States also are here.

Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, who is to be one of the chief speakers at the banquet, arrived shortly before noon today and was met by Governor Marshall, who will entertain Governor Wilson at his home. William Jennings Bryan, who was on the list of speakers, was one of the pallbearers at Tom Johnson's funeral in Brooklyn today and could not come.

Before the banquet the distinguished guests will have their hands full in a social way. In honor of the visiting governors and a few additional guests, Governor Marshall was the host at a luncheon at the University club at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The guests were then taken on an automobile ride about the city. The banquet will begin at 6 o'clock, and it is planned to have the speechmaking begin by 8 o'clock.

Governor Woodrow Wilson will speak on "The Party and the Present"; George Harvey of New York, "Progressive Democracy"; H. B. Ferguson, known as the "commoner" of New Mexico, "Militant Democracy"; Allen Albert of the Columbus (O.) News, "The Power and Influence of the Press"; John Temple Graves of New York, "The New Democracy"; Governor Lee Cruce of Oklahoma, "Democratic Reforms"; and Warren Worth Bailey of Pennsylvania; Governor James H. Hawley of Idaho, and former Governor Peck of Wisconsin, whose subjects have not yet been announced. James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois will be toastmaster, and he probably will call on others to speak.

Governor Hoke Smith of Georgia; Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri; Governor Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts, and some others who were expected at the banquet, will not be here. However, many other guests of national reputation are expected, and plates will be laid for 1,000 guests. The Indiana delegation in congress sent word to Hugh Dougherty, chairman of the banquet committee, that, although they could not be present, all of the representatives from Indiana sent their best wishes for the success of the affair.

Children to Take Notable Part in G. A. R. Encampment.

Richmond, Ind., April 13.—One hundred and fifty citizens will solicit money to provide entertainment for the Grand Army encampment, which is to be held here in May. Mayof Zimmerman has called on citizens to respond to the request of the encampment committee, and more than $5,000 is to be raised. The city schools will be closed Thursday, May 18, the day of the Grand Army parade. Twenty-five hundred children will take part in the day's festivities. North A street, from Tenth to Eleventh streets, will be flanked by stands, seating 2,000 children. Across North A street, at Tenth street, will be massed 500 children, dressed in red, white and blue, and arranged to produce the letters "G. A. R." in blue on a field of white, surrounded by a border of red.

Other Suits Are Pending.

Boonville, Ind., April 13.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Lena Swearingen against Alexander Hutchinson and other directors and stockholders to recover the face value of $9,000 worth of stock in the defunct Evansville Glass company, returned a verdict for the defendants. The case was on trial for two weeks. Other suits in the same case involve $125,000.

Farmers Fear Rising Water.

Petersburg, Ind., April 13.—Continued rain is alarming farmers in White river bottoms. The river is full and in several places is out of its banks. It will take only a little more rain to overflow thousands of acres of growing wheat and delay for weeks the planting of the largest acreage of corn in the history of the White river bottoms.

The Quarantine Renewed.

Shelbyville, Ind., April 13.—The smallpox quarantine, lifted Wednesday, was put in force once more by special action of the board of health when seven new cases of smallpox were reported. The schools will continue to be closed.

James A. Patten, the Chicago "wheat king," has given $2,000,000 to Northwestern university to be used in the war on tuberculosis.

ENTIRE TOWN DEMOLISHED

Cyclone Wipes Out Big Heart, Oklahoma.

MANY LIVES LOST IN TORNADO

Funnel-Shaped Cloud Swept Across Prairie and Lifted From Its Foundations a Village Which It Caught in Its Path—Several Towns in Northeastern Kansas Also Were Badly Damaged.

Pawhuska, Okla., April 13.—Eight persons are known to have been killed, between twenty-five and thirty injured, many fatally, and the entire town of Big Heart, fifteen miles south of here, swept away by a cyclone which struck there about 5 o'clock last evening. Big Heart has a population of about 400. Only one building remained standing.

The cyclone formed southwest of the city, appearing in the traditional funnel form, and came without warning. People fled from the crashing buildings only to be struck down in the streets by flying timber or picked up and carried away through the air. About 100 Indians were camped near the village. The storm struck them first, tearing down their tents and teepees and scattering them about. Several of the Indians were killed and injured. A relief train carrying doctors and nurses was sent from Pawhuska. Another was sent from Ironton, south of Big Heart. The dead and wounded were brought here.

The scene at Big Heart last night beggared description. The work of rescuing the dead and wounded from the debris and wreckage was carried on by lantern light and progress was very slow. Many of the bodies were carried far beyond the scene of destruction and searching parties hunted for those in the fields. Timbers from the demolished buildings were found half a mile away.

KANSAS HARD HIT

Storm Sweeps Through Wide Stretch in Northeastern Section.

Topeka, Kan., April 13.—Two persons were killed, thirty to fifty others injured and buildings worth half a million dollars damaged and ruined by a tornado that swept through northeastern Kansas yesterday afternoon.

The storm struck first at Eskridge, southwest of Topeka. Twenty-six people were injured there, one seriously. Most of the injured are school children. The storm struck just as the children were dismissed from school. The roof of the building was blown off and the children were injured by flying timber. From this point the storm jumped thirty miles northeast. Mrs. David Stone was fatally injured at Netewaka. The storm then swept along for eight miles.

Three Towns Wrecked.

Lightning killed James Rosenbaum at Germantown, and a schoolhouse three miles east of Hiawatha was demolished, killing one girl and injuring three others who had taken refuge there. Telephone and telegraph wires are down completely. At Eskridge twenty houses and about thirty barns were demolished. From Netewaka, through Whiting and Germantown, a distance of eight miles, more than seventy houses and barns were partially or completely wrecked. Several hundred head of cattle, horses and hogs were killed by flying debris.

At Leavenworth the tornado did thousands of dollars' worth of damage. Hallstones practically ruined every greenhouse in the city and broke hundreds of windows in residences. Scores of sheds and outhouses were overturned.

OUTSIDE HELP

Probably Instrumental in Getting Men Out of Jail.

Danville, Ind., April 13.—Luther White and Harry D. Craven broke jail here, and a state-wide effort is being made to capture the fugitives. The sheriff says the men probably received outside help. White was serving time on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. Craven was in on a statutory charge with six weeks to serve. White has served two terms in prison.

The Human Heart

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body at the rate of seven miles an hour. "Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Being made without alcohol, this "Medical Discovery" helps the stomach to assimilate the food, thereby curing dyspepsia. It is especially adapted to diseases attended with excessive tissue waste, notably in convalescence from various fevers, for thin-blooded people and those who are always "catching cold."

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN

NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIESTo Preserve Roads.

In the movement for better roads in this country, Rush county should join with all its might and main to have as good if not better roads than any county in the State. It is an easy matter to build good roads, but the great trouble is in preserving them. Many good roads, as good as any to be found in the universe, are to be found in this county, but they are not preserved. That is the all important topic.

After the road has once been built, the next step is to plan to keep it in perfect repair. All experienced road builders are unanimous in asserting that the road drag is the only feasible plan. It is of little value when the road is dry and dusty. It is found to be the most advantageous when put on the road immediately after a rain. Then it scrapes off the bumps and fills up the chuck holes.

President Taft urges college men to go into politics. A sprinkling of college men is felt by all politicians to have a decorative effect, and is safe if the convention work has all been done in advance. President Lincoln is said to have made many bad appointments, but that was before they could size up a man by seeing if he could name the capes of China.

The Rushville business men could do no better thing than all join in giving the Rushville Glove Company a royal greeting. The glove company should have the moral as well as the financial support of the retail men since it has done much for itself and gives promise of living a long and fruitful life.

The common tie that joins human being is no better illustrated than it is in cases where some man suffers misfortune and is given a boost by his fellow beings. James Black was unfortunate when he lost all of this world's goods in a fire, and Rushville men responded liberally to his plea for financial assistance.

Justice Goff of the New York Supreme court wouldn't let Cornelius Vanderbilt cross his legs in his court. Under the circumstances we see nothing for Mr. Vanderbilt to do but to put his feet on the desk.

If you can buy Senate seats merely by fixing it so that none of the goods will be found in the senator's pocket, the laws against bribery might as well be repealed.

Although Mr. Bryan is said to be a back number, he still seems to have some subscribers down Washington way.

The head of the Mormon church denounces plural marriages, but returns from the business at Reno show no falling off as yet.

Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan talked for an hour the other day. Hasn't Mr. Bryan got his garden seeds yet?

SUIT WAS COMPROMISED

Warner Schmidt Was Called to New Castle Yesterday.

Warner Schmidt, one of the owners of the new Portola theater, was called to New Castle suddenly yesterday and made the trip in an automobile. He was wanted there because a compromise had been reached in the suit brought by C. H. Beard against Warner and George Schmidt for possession of the room occupied by the Princess theater. By the terms of the compromise, the Schmidt brothers agree to vacate the room if Tom Ritter and James Morcup are granted a saloon license by the commissioners, and are to receive $600 from the firm for possession.

MAKE PLEA FOR A NEW NOBLE TRIAL

Sprague killed her husband. He also believes that the chloroformed her children in order to keep them from hearing the sound of the shot. He declares that he will show, if a new trial is granted, that Sprague was asleep on the first floor of the house on the night of the murder and that he (Noble) was asleep on the second floor. He declares that Mrs. Sprague is a person of high and uncontrollable temper. He says that, while sowing wheat with Sprague in 1909, Sprague told him that he had quarreled with his wife often and that her accusations that he was untrue to her and was too intimate with other women were the causes for the quarrels. He says that, while the family lived in Bartholomew county, that Sprague once started to leave his family and gathered up his clothes, but that Mrs. Sprague cried and pleaded with him until he decided to remain at home. Noble declares that in the affidavit that Mrs. Sprague once told him that her husband had had improper relations with other women and that if he did not discontinue it, she would get rid of him. He asserts she did not say whether it would be by divorce or in what manner. He says that he was loath to recite any of those incidents in the first trial for fear that it would injure his case and that the jury might think he was trying to shoulder the blame for the crime on Mrs. Sprague.

Donald Smith of this city and John E. Osborn, in a long affidavit review the testimony in the trial heard here and the new evidence which will be introduced and base that as a plea for a new trial. They state that they believe further evidence can be procured to prove that Mrs. Gertrude Sprague is guilty.

There is a vast difference between the "Caloric" and ordinary so-called "fireless cookers." It is far more efficient and useful. True, the price may be a trifle higher, but then the "Caloric" is worth more money, and in the end is less expensive than any other. It will pay for itself many times over in the saving of fuel and food to say nothing of time, labor and discomfort.

The "Caloric" is a complete cook stove and can be used the year around, winter and summer. In many homes it is considered an indispensable kitchen appliance and is used in the preparation of every meal. At every use it means both convenience and economy to the housewife—she is enabled to do something else while the "Caloric" cooks the meal.

We want you to see and examine these wonderful stoves and will gladly explain them to you upon request. You will be under no obligation to purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller entertained the members of the Epworth League of the Manilla M. E. church and several guests at a social at their home in Union township Tuesday night, says the Shelbyville Democrat. The Rev. G. B. Beck, formerly pastor of the church, was one of the guests present. He made a short address when called on at the conclusion of the regular program. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake, candy, fruit and coffee were served. The guests included Frederick Talow, Cyrus Green, Neva Macy, Miss Edith Hester and Ralph Hester.

AMUSEMENTS

The Vaudet will present a Nestor film for their first picture. The subject is "A Desperate Remedy." It is said to be a fine comedy, one out of the ordinary run of comic subjects. The other is a Powers drama, entitled, "A Father's Love." It is a strong picture and tells a great story. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand will present three pictures tonight. The first is a drama entitled "The Bandit's Surprise." The second is a comedy entitled "When Masons Meet." Both of these are Powers Photoplay pictures and are extra good. The third picture is an Imp drama, entitled "The Message in the Bottle." The Modern Comedy company will give five numbers in vaudeville, and Earl Robertson will sing a new song.

The Portola theater will show the same program tonight which attracted large audiences to all of the shows last night. George Schmidt, who sings the illustrated songs with very good effect, continues to be very popular with the theater-going public in Rushville. He was compelled to respond to encore at most of the shows last night and did it with good grace. Miss Maude Schmidt plays the piano well and the combination of piano and traps, which are played by George Schmidt prove a very pleasing method of entertaining the crowds in the tiresome waits between shows.

The first film at the Palace tonight will be a Selig, "The Medallion." The story of this picture is laid in Italy during the 17th century and concerns the sufferings of a great painter. His betrothed has a brother in prison, and his shame is kept hidden for the honor of the family. This brother, escaping from his cell, goes by night to his sister's room to beg money that he may escape. The painter coming to serenade her, sees the brother leave her window and thinking her false, casts her off; and she, demanding trust as well as love is too proud to tell him the truth. The other picture is a Kalem, "The Heart of an Indian Mother." It shows what good a little deed of kindness may accomplish, even with an Indian. The song for tonight is "If I Were the King of the World."

SEEK TO SWELL THE FREE LIST

Democrats Inaugurate Their Tariff Program.

THE NECESSARIES OF LIFE

Many of Them Are Included in the List Which the House Majority Proposes Shall Be Duty Free—Interest in Congress Now Centers in Underwood Revision Measure, to Be Known as the "Farmers' Bill."

Washington, April 13.—Representative Underwood, chairman of the Democratic committee on ways and means,
has introduced in the house two bills,
one embodying the terms of the reciprocity trade agreement negotiated with Canada by Mr. Taft and the other proposing to transfer to the free list a hundred or more articles, among them several "necessaries of life."
The Democrats thus began their work of revising the tariff. They believe that the program, whether or not it is carried out by a Republican senate, will reflect credit upon their party and bring favorable political results.

The Canadian agreement will be reported to the house tomorrow and will be passed early next week. Immediately following action on the Canadian pact the house will proceed to the consideration of the Underwood tariff bill, which provides for revision, as the Democrats put it, "in the interest of the farmer and the ultimate consumer."

The Underwood bill, carrying out the provisions of the Canadian agreement, is in all essentials patterned after the McCall bill, which failed in the last congress. It contains one new provision which, however, does not affect the agreement itself. This is the request of the president that he "negotiate trade agreements with the Dominion of Canada wherein mutual concessions are made looking toward freer trade relations and further reciprocal expansion of trade and commerce."

For the "Ultimate Consumer."

Chief interest is centered in the bill admitting duty free about a hundred articles used by the "ultimate consumer" and the farmer. The farmer has objected to the Canadian agreement on the ground that it makes the market in which he sells free, while compelling him to buy under protection. The Democratic leaders figure that such a measure will cut the ground from under the senate insurgents who have opposed reciprocity on the ground that it was unfair to the farmer.

While the "farmers' bill" affects a large number of articles of every day consumption, such as meats, flour and other foodstuffs in addition to agricultural implements, it would not seriously affect the revenues. Representative Underwood said that the revenue contained last year on the articles enumerated in the bill approximately only $1,500,000, and of this amount cotton bagging alone yielded about $1,000,000. Democrats declare that the rates now imposed on most of the articles enumerated in the bill are prohibitory.

The two tariff bills will be rushed through the house. Very little time will be allowed for debate. The new code of rules adopted by the Democrats has a provision specifically bearing on revenue measures. It provides that no amendment to such a bill is in order unless it is germane to the subject matter under consideration. The effect of this will be to limit debate and save time. The Underwood free list bill proposes a partial revision of the tariff that the Democrats believe will be very popular with the country.
It admits duty free many of the leading foodstuffs and such articles of common use as lumber. With this latter provision taken in connection with the concessions on Canadian lumber granted in the Taft agreement, Democrats say that the country would be in a position to draw not only on the great Canadian resources, but also from the Mexican supply. This inclusion of lumber in the Underwood bill is designed carefully to open up the big pine resources of the republic to the south.

HADN'T PROVED CASE

Interesting Decision at Muncie Regarding Work of Tax Ferrets.

Muncie, Ind., April 13.—Judge Frank Ellis holds that the statement of a "tax ferret" does not prove that a taxpayer owes back taxes. In the case of Washington Maynard of Gaston, who opposed the collection of $129.07 which had been charged against him by a tax ferret, Judge Ellis ruled that the claim of the county was illegal, as it had not been properly proved.

a hundred ballots have been taken.

WINE RIOTERS GIVE NO END OF TROUBLE

France Is Again the Scene of Turmoil.

Epernay, France, April 13.—In the department of the Marne the manifestations of the wine growers against the restoration of the department of the Aube to the delimited champagne district, which began with the destruction of 250,000 gallons of wine at Dizy Magenta and similar devastation in other communes are continuing. The rioting is due to the action of the senate in adopting a resolution asking the cabinet to reintegrate Aube as part of the district.

Infantry and mounted troops to the number of 16,000 have arrived at Eper-nay from all points of the compass, encountering burning ruins everywhere. Many formerly prosperous villages have been laid waste. Between 7 o'clock and midnight the number of women to join the vine dressers increased in great numbers. The rioters became almost ferocious. Not only were the troops jeered, but they were bombarded with stones, and at Ay a child hurled a bomb that exploded and injured three cavalymen.

Pillagers have joined the rioters and several mansions have been sacked.
The rioters declare that if the troops succeed in dislodging them from Eper-nay they will march to Rheims. Bordeaux vine dressers held a meeting for the purpose of challenging the government to interfere in the delimitation.

Rioters attempted to burn the historic castle of the Duc de Montebello, near Epernay, but were driven off by troops.

TURN THOUGHTS TO CLEAN UP DAY

Rushville People Wish For Olden Day
When Annual Event For Brightening City Came.

DIRTY AND CLEAN LOCK ARMS

Trash Was a Common Enemy of All and it Was Consigned to Garbage Pile.

Without a clean-up day Rushville can never amount to very much. It is a common belief that cleanliness is next to godliness, and why not have cleanliness if nothing else. There were days when Rushville had a clean-up day, it being one of the first cities in this section of the State to make friends with the idea. Since that time nearly every city in the Sixth district has taken to the idea and has instituted an annual clean-up day, which has proved to be very popular.

Along with the annual bath should come the cleaning of the yard, the house, the alleys, the streets, and in fact anything that shows any inclination to be dirty. It is as easy to go out in the garden and eat worms as to carry on a conversation on one of the streets of town which has no clean-up day. The dirt blows and scatters, spreads disease and generally injures health.

In the good old days when Rushville had a clean-up day, the city's people were inspired with the idea. At the appointed time the thoroughly clean and the thoroughly dirty locked arms and set about doing work with the same end in view. In view of the fact everyone was imbued with the clean-up idea, it was general and the old town looked like a new place. Everyone cleaned everything. Some people even liked the idea so much that they cleaned out the closets and added all of the trash about the house to the pile in the alley. The city furnished wagons and the trash was hauled to the garbage pile. But those were glad some days!

The matter of keeping the city's paved streets clean is a part of the clean-up agitation. The question is a very pertinent one as already many dollars worth of stock in business houses has been ruined by the continual blowing dust and no doubt germs have been spread far and wide—germs that would never have lived to see the light of day if the wind had not carried them to some fruitful place in a human Rushvillian.

The city council has signified that it will advertise for bids for cleaning the paved streets, but as yet no notice of a date set for accepting bids has been posted. Slushing the streets has been suggested as a feasible plan for getting rid of the debris but there are two reasons why that plan can not be used in Rushville. First, the city's water supply is not great enough to allow water to be wasted in such a manner, and secondly the sewer is not large enough to carry off such a flow of water.
